

JBP achieves CPD accreditation for its courses.

After undergoing a thorough and rigorous accreditation assessment process carried out by the accreditation team at by the Continuous Professional Development Standards Office (CPDSO), JBP's Trenchless Training Course in Cured-in-Place Pipe (CIPP) Design Calculations & Current Practice is now fully CPD accredited.

The this new course, recently added to JBP's Trenchless Training Programme, has been developed in conjunction Dr. Dec Downey, and was given its inaugural outing at NoDig Live 2021, in Peterborough (U.K.).

The course will soon be added to the range of courses available on-line via JBP's Trenchless Training platform.
